STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 1984-85. The notes on clauses explain the various provisions contained in the Bill.

NEW DELHI ;

PRANAB MUKHERJEE

The 29th February, 1984.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLES 117 AND 274 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. F. 3(1)-B(D)/84 dated the 29th February, 1984, from Shri Pranab Mukherjee, Minister of Finance, to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject-matter of the proposed Bill, recommends under clauses (1) and (3) of article 117, read with clause (1) of article 274, of the Constitution of India, the introduction of the Finance Bill, 1984, to the Lok Sabha and also recommends to the Lok Sabha the consideration of the Bill.

2. The Bill will be introduced in the Lok Sabha immediately after the presentation of the Budget on the 29th February, 1984.

Clause 2(7) of the Bill provides that if a company makes a deposit with the Industrial Development Bank of India in accordance with any scheme framed by the Central Government, the surcharge on income-tax payable by the company will be reduced to the extent mentioned in the said sub-clause. The scheme to be framed by the Central Government will contain details as to the manner of making such deposits, the period for which such deposits may be made and other connected matters of detail.

Clause 15(a) of the Bill seeks to insert a new clause (iia) in sub-section (1) of section 80L of the Income-tax Act, 1961, which seeks to include interest on deposits under such National Deposit Scheme framed by the Central Government as may be notified by it in the Official Gazette as one of the categories of income qualifying for deduction under this section.

Clause 19(a) of the Bill seeks to provide that the permanent physical disability which would entitle an assessee to get deduction under section 80U of the Income-tax Act will henceforth be only such permanent physical disability of a type as may be specified by the Central Board of Direct Taxes by rules made in this behalf. Sub-clause (b) of this clause also provides that in making any rules for specifying any disability under this section, the Board will take into account the nature of such disability and the effect which such disability is likely to have on the capacity of the person subject thereto or suffering therefrom to engage in a gainful employment or occupation.

Clause 28 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 269SS in the Income-tax Act which provides that no person shall take or accept any loan or deposit otherwise than by an account payee cheque or account payee bank draft if the amount of such loan or deposit is ten thousand rupees or more. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any loan or deposit taken from or accepted by, Government, banking company, etc., and such institution, association or body, or class of institutions, associations or bodies which the Central Government may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, notify in this behalf in the Official Gazette.

Clause 32 of the Bill seeks to amend section 281A of the Income-tax Act relating to the effect of failure to furnish information in respect of properties held benami. By an amendment to sub-section (1) of this section, it is proposed to replace the existing option of making a disclosure in the return of income or net wealth or giving a notice to the Income-tax Officer before instituting any suit in any court to enforce any right in respect of property held benami by a provision for giving notice within one year of the date of acquisition of the property to the Commissioner in the form to be prescribed by rules made by the Central Board of Direct Taxes under the Act and containing such particulars to be specified by the Board in such rules. New sub-section (1A) proposed to be inserted in this section provides that the prescribed notice containing the prescribed particulars required to be made under sub-section (1) aforesaid shall, in respect of any property acquired before 1st March, 1984, be deemed to have been fulfilled if such notice containing the particulars is given to the Commissioner within a period of one year from that date. New sub-section (1B) provides that the aforesaid provisions of sub-section (1) and sub-section (1A) shall be deemed to have been fulfilled in respect of any suit relating to any immovable property of a value not exceeding Rs. 50,000 if notice in the prescribed form containing prescribed particulars in respect of the property is given by the claimant to the Commissioner at any time before the suit. The new sub-section (2) to this section empowers the Commissioner, on an application made by the claimant in the manner prescribed by rules and on payment of the fees specified in such rules, to furnish a certified copy of any notice given by him under the aforesaid provisions.

Clause 34(a)(i)(2) of the Bill seeks to insert a new clause (xxva) in section 5(1) of the Wealth-tax Act. The new clause (xxva) proposes to provide for exemption in respect of any deposits under such National Deposit Scheme as may be framed by the Central Government and notified by it in this behalf in the Official Gazette.

The delegation of legislative power under the afore-mentioned provisions relates to matters of procedure or administrative detail or to matters in respect of which it is not practicable to make detailed provisions. Hence the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.
